DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.
2. Claims 21-54 are allowed. Claims 1-20 have been cancelled.

The following is an examiner's statement for reason of allowance:

The prior art fails to teach or suggest a method for communicating information between computers, having: entering into a first computer an input indicating a telephone number for an information source using an input device having a plurality of input elements arranged in a telephone keypad arrangement but without full alphabetic input elements; the first computer obtaining from a database a network identification of the information source based on the telephone number; the first computer establishing a network connection with a second computer of the information source using the network identification and the first computer displaying information obtained from the second computer as claimed in claim 21.

The prior art fails to teach or suggest a method of interfacing between a user and an information system including a plurality of networked computers having the user entering into a first computer an input indicating a telephone number for an information source using an input device having a plurality of input elements arranged in a telephone keypad arrangement but without full alphabetic input elements; the first computer obtaining from a database a network identification of the information source based on the telephone number; the first computer establishing a network connection with a second computer of the information source using the network identification; the second computer pushing information to the first computer via the network connection, the pushed information including identifying codes associated with one or more active areas defined for a display screen of the first computer; the first computer displaying information received from the second computer to the user; the user selecting one or more of the active areas using the input device; and the first computer communicating to the second computer identifying code associated with the selected active areas as claimed in claim 34.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
